

I do not want to change the no call law, if anything it should be made stronger. No company should be allowed to call for marketing or polling purposes unless they have a sign form by the consumer on file.